Presidents Report: Guest Speaker for October meeting will be Brian Dansel. We are looking for a November guest speaker.

Rifle Raffle was a huge success and we still had folks wanting to purchase tickets after we were sold out. The drawing was held at Clark's All Sports on October 4 and the 20 winners of the firearms and fishing rods have been notified. See Statesman Examiner next week for photo and article.

Happy Dell Park restrooms have now been successfully plumbed and the concrete pad has been poured. Next phase will begin with the actual building structure.

Fishing Report: Rainbow trout are biting in the Colville River area, Rickey Point, Bradbury Beach, and at Chalk Grade. The sizes are average of 11 to 14 inches. It seems the bigger ones are at Chalk Grade. Flies, wedding rings, flasher and dodger combos are working well. Nice walleye are also biting and guys are finding them.

National Park Service is going to have FEE increases next year for Camping and Boating. There will be a public meeting on October 21 at the Community College in Colville, 985 S. Elm St., 6 to 8pm. Yearly Boat Launch Fee will be 45.00 for EVERYONE all AGES. Check this website to see what is going on:

Instead of the Kris Kringle this year we are going to donate canned goods to the Food Bank, there will be a trailer at TJ's to donate. Case food sales are going on right now.
