President's Report: Fred and Ethel Tournament: The Annual Fred and Ethel Tournament will be held September 17th at Bradbury Beach boat launch. Blast off for boats is 7AM and boats need to return to the boat launch by 1PM with their 4 walleye and/or 5 trout to be weighed. Contact Doug Unzeitig to sign up and pay entry fee of 25.00 per person by THURSDAY September 15th. If anyone wishes to fish there are a couple boats looking for anglers. After the weigh in we will then meet at the Kettle Falls Gun Club for a potluck. Club cooks will provide burgers and brats.

Rifle Raffle: Doug Unzeitig and volunteers sold 86 tickets at the Stevens County Fair. Thank You guys for a job well done and promoting the Club in the process. The time is nearing the end to sell or purchase the tickets you have and get the ticket stubs and money to Doug Unzeitig. The Rifle Raffle drawing will take place Sunday September 18 at 2PM at TJ's in Kettle Falls. At last count, Doug and volunteers had sold over 59 tickets at the Republic Country Fair. Thanks so much to the Volunteers that helped out selling tickets. We are on the way to our best Rifle Raffle yet.

Christmas Party: Mark your calendars for December 4th at TJ's for our annual Christmas Party. More details to come.

Club Meeting: September 13th, Guest Speaker Jim Meskan--Tuna Fishing. Board will meet at 5pm. Meeting at 6pm.

Presidents Report: The FDR lake level is now sitting at 1277' and most of the boat launches north of Kettle Falls are inaccessible and barricaded by the NPS. The level is expected to remain for a few weeks. The cool nights are now getting rid of mosquitoes and signaling it's time to go after the rainbows. Carryover trout are being caught up to 20" and this year's net pen trout are now 13 to 14 inches and fat. A few kokanee have also showed up recently also. The walleye fishing has picked up quite a bit too with a normal range of 14 to 17 inches. Definitely have seen them grow this summer! This year's Tuesday Night Fishing League has been a big success with many big fish being caught. Check out the whopper walleye Ken and Debbie House turned in last week, 10lbs. 8oz. Clyde Reneman and Ike Eickerman had great Coho salmon fishing on their annual Alaska

River fishing trip. Jim Meskan did very well on the albacore tuna off of Westport recently, fish were solid 25 pounders this year.

Rotary Club Banquet: The Walleye Club is attending the banquet on October 8th at 4pm. anyone wanting to join us contact Doug Unzeitig 738-6534 for tickets 25.00 per person. It is usually a catered dinner; prime rib and lots of side dishes; lots of games, auction and drinks. This is always a fun event.
